Hof Rosé vom Blauer Zweigelt 2026

Wine Description

This rosé presents itself with a reddish-brown tone, reminiscent of the colour of onion skins. Already when swirling, fine, but very clear streaks can be seen, which give away the wine's juiciness just by looking at it. On the nose this rosé presents itself very excitingly. Starting with meadow herbs, the aroma develops into deep strawberry aromas and ends with a pleasant mix of red berries. On the palate, this rosé presents itself sensationally. Certainly, this blend of vineyards makes it a tremendous drinking pleasure. The first impression is reminiscent of the Kamptal with a slender body and a pleasant play of acidity. It concludes with a powerful finish, which is very typical for the Wagramer loess subsoil. In addition, the aroma continues on the palate.
