

ALOIS LAGEDER

MIMUÈT PINOT NOIR RISERVA 2016

Riserva

Wine Type:	Still wine red dry
Alcohol:	12.5 %
Certificates:	Demeter, bio-dynamic
Allergens:	sulfites

Vineyard

Origin:	Italy, Margreid
Site:	Missian - Eppan und Buchholz - Saturn
Normal Classification:	Riserva
Varietal:	Pinot Noir 100 %
Sea Level:	370 - 520 m
Soil:	gravelly calcareous large glacier stone deposits loam top soil

Weather / Climate

Seasons 2016:	Spring flowering frost Summer mild September harvest dry
----------------------	--

Harvest and Maturing

Harvest:	handpicked
Malolactic Fermentation:	yes
Fermentation:	spontaneous steel tank

Maturing:	steel tank 12 month(s) concrete tank small wooden barrel used barrel large wooden barrel used barrel

Winery

The Alois Lageder winery in Alto Adige comprises fiftyfive hectares of the family's own vineyards, which are managed on the basis of biodynamic principles. Our holistic approach is reflected in our wine-growing activities, our long-standing relationships with numerous grape growers and our ambition to create awareness for an agriculture that is in tune with nature.

