

Wine Description

A vineyard at 1,330 meters in Oberbozen gives us a glimpse into the future. Will we be planting all our vineyards at higher altitudes one day? Will it eventually become too warm in the valley? Can we truly do without pesticides when working with fungus-resistant grape varieties? Siralos – a wine that, at least for a moment, lets us look into the future. Sometimes vinified dry, sometimes sweet.

Wine Type:	Still wine white dry
Alcohol:	14 %
Allergens:	sulfites

Vineyard

Varietal:	Solaris 100 %
-----------	---------------

Harvest and Maturing

Fermentation:	stainless steel barrel
---------------	------------------------

Winery

For over 30 years, the Kränzelhof in Tschermers has been producing wine on-site and also offers a garden to visit, featuring rotating art exhibitions and culinary experiences at the Miil and Essbar restaurants.