Documented since 1455, this southeast-facing vineyard is situated high above the castle park of Eisenstadt and extends to the edge of the Leithaberg forest. Proximity to the forest causes large diurnal temperature fluctuations and together with Leithakalk (Leitha shell limestone), ideal conditions prevail to slowly ripen the Sankt Laurent variety to full maturity. This Sankt Laurent vineyard yields very elegant, finely spiced red wines each year.

Wine Description

Smells like smoky raspberry juice. And in the nose there are traces of raspberries and cranberries, liquorice and pencils, cold-brew oolong tea: all of which then dives into the glug of the glass, giving a syncopated play of barrelhouse blues in a glass. Packed with energy, but there's a slow draw back into the gravel and walking-bass-line of the tannins. If you could bottle Ann Rabson...

Food Pairing

Perfect with game, meat dishes and mature cheese
