Vineyard

Vineyard Site:

Ried Reishühl lies at the southeast-facing base of the Leithaberg between Groß- and Kleinhöflein. First documented in 1570, it is one of Burgenland's most historic vineyard sites. Sandy to loamy topsoil rich in limestone sits atop a stony subsoil, ensuring deep root penetration and a well-balanced water supply. This unique soil composition shapes powerful, structured wines with chalky minerality and subtle spice.

Harvest and Maturing

The selective harvest of the ripe, healthy grapes is carried out exclusively by hand. In the cellar, the grapes are destemmed and lightly crushed. The natural, alcoholic fermentation and maceration takes place in stainless steel tanks and lasts three to four weeks. During this time, the mash is pumped over (remontage) two to four times a day to release the valuable ingredients (color, tannin) from the skins. Further maturation and natural malolactic fermentation takes place in small oak barrels. We let the young wine rest for as long as possible without any intervention (racking, sulfurization). After around 22 months of barrel aging, the individual barrels are blended and stored in stainless steel tanks until bottling. In order to retain as much of the wine's original freshness and character as possible without "clouding" future enjoyment, this wine is only subjected to a light, clarifying filtration during bottling.
