dukkah -/- sukah r (L DSR_NV1/23) N.V.

Wein aus Österreich

WINE DESCRIPTION

"dukkah" and "sukah" are concepts from the Buddhist teaching, dukkah denoting suffering & pain while sukah stands for happiness & pleasure. You rarely can have one without the other, the more so in wine. We work, we worry, we take care and are rewarded at the end. The red dukkah-/-sukah is a juicy, light and extremely drinkable blend of typical Austrian red varieties, vinified in used wooden barrels without messing around.

WINERY

Perfectly made wines can often seem smooth and soon bore us. So, here is our range of Wabi-Sabi wines: Wines with a certain roughness, wines with an edge. In traditional Japanese aesthetics, Wabi-sabi ( a world view centered on the acceptance of transience and imperfection. The aesthetic is sometimes described as one of beauty that is "imperfect, impermanent, and incomplete". It is a concept derived from the Buddhist teaching of the three marks of existence ( 3 Sanbōin), specifically impermanence ( 3 Subi-sabi aesthetic include asymmetry, roughness, simplicity, economy, austerity, modesty, intimacy, and appreciation of the ingenuous integrity of natural objects and processes. In today's Japan, the meaning of wabi-sabi is often condensed to "wisdom in natural simplicity."
