

N.V. VERJUS SPRITS GRÜNER VELTLINER

STEINGER

Origin:	Austria, Kamptal
Site:	Vineyards from the village of Langenlois
Varietal	Grüner Veltliner 100 %
Soil	loam alluvial gravel

Vineyard Site:

Various vineyards around Langenlois combine loess, primary rock and limestone. The result is a wine with origin, tension and refined minerality.

Cellar

crafted with care

The early-harvested grapes are carefully picked, gently pressed and meticulously filtered. The result is a fine, clear juice that serves as a versatile source of acidity in the kitchen – fresh, elegant and alcohol-free.

harvest

In early September, we harvest the Grüner Veltliner grapes by hand while they still carry high acidity and low sugar – the ideal foundation for a refreshing Verjus.

Wine Description

Fresh, vibrant and wonderfully easy-drinking! Pale green-yellow in colour with lively aromas of green apple, lime and a delicate hint of fresh herbs. Crisp and juicy on the palate, driven by bright acidity and refreshing lightness. Subtle herbal notes add character, while its sparkling freshness creates an effortlessly enjoyable drinking experience. A non-alcoholic aperitif with a lively, refreshing style and remarkable drinkability.

Food Pairing

Serve well chilled as a refreshing aperitif or versatile food companion. Pairs beautifully with light starters, summer salads, Mediterranean cuisine, grilled vegetables and fish dishes. Its vibrant acidity and delicate herbal character make it an ideal choice for relaxed and uncomplicated enjoyment.

Fresh, sparkling, and alcohol-free – our Grüner Veltliner Sprits Verjus delights with vibrant acidity, fine berry notes, and elegant lightness. The sparkling alternative for any occasion!
