WabiSabiwines \＃whatelse

Perfectly made wines can often seem smooth and soon bore us．So，here is our range of Wabi－Sabi wines：Wines with a certain roughness，wines with an edge．

In traditional Japanese aesthetics，Wabi－sabi（侘寂）is a world view centered on the acceptance of transience and imperfection．The aesthetic is sometimes described as one of beauty that is „imperfect，impermanent，and incomplete＂．It is a concept derived from the Buddhist teaching of the three marks of existence（三法印 sanbōin），specifically impermanence（無常 mujō），suffering（苦 ku）and emptiness or absence of self－nature（空 $k u \bar{u}$ ．

Characteristics of the wabi－sabi aesthetic include asymmetry，roughness，simplicity， economy，austerity，modesty，intimacy，and appreciation of the ingenuous integrity of natural objects and processes．

In today＇s Japan，the meaning of wabi－sabi is often condensed to „wisdom in natural simplicity．＂
